

English exam 2nd term

Text :

Elephants have lived on this plane for five million years. Scientists have found their bones in many places, from Asia to North of America. Till now, elephants have lived in different kinds of environment, including very dry areas in Niger, grasslands in East of Africa and forests in West Africa. African elephants are in danger of extinction. Hunters have already killed hundreds of thousands of elephants for their ivory, so several countries have protected elephants in national parks.
