

Text:

A poor young fisherman went out in his boat every evening, and threw his net into the sea . One evening , the net was very heavy. He laughed and said : " Perhaps I have caught all the fish in the sea" . He pulled and pulled .The net came nearer to the boat .At last it was on the surface of the water .

There was no fish in , but a beautiful mermaid . Her hair was yellow as gold . Her body was like silver and pearl . She was extremely nice. He took her in his arms .When he touched her, she cried. She opened her blue eyes and tried to escape, but she couldn't .She began to weep, "Please let me go " she said ."I ' m the daughter of the king ; my father is very old and alone "
