

Text:

Greenpeace

In 1969, the USA began a series of nuclear tests on a little island near Alaska . At that time ,the Alaskans did not realize that those tests were dangerous . They did not even know what they were happening ! A Canadian decided to do something about this . With some friends they bought a boat which they called Greenpeace . And they went to the island in their boat , just when the Americans wanted to explode another bomb.

The Americans had to end testing bombs in Alaska , and the Greenpeace people and their organization have become famous all over the world .

Since then , Greenpeace has never stopped working : its members try to stop people and governments doing things that pollute the environment .
