1. Read:

Martin Luther King, Jr.
(1929-1968)

I have a dream
That one day this nation will rise up
And live out the true meaning of its creed;
“We hold these truths to be self-evident,
That all men are created equal”.

I have a dream
That one day on the red hills of Georgia
The sons of former slaves
And the sons of former slave-owners
At the table of brotherhood.

I have a dream
That one day even the state of Mississippi,

A state sweltering with the heat of oppression,

Will be transformed
Into an oasis of freedom and justice.

I have a dream
That my four little children
Will one day live in a nation
Where they will not be judged
By the color of their skin
But by the content of their character.

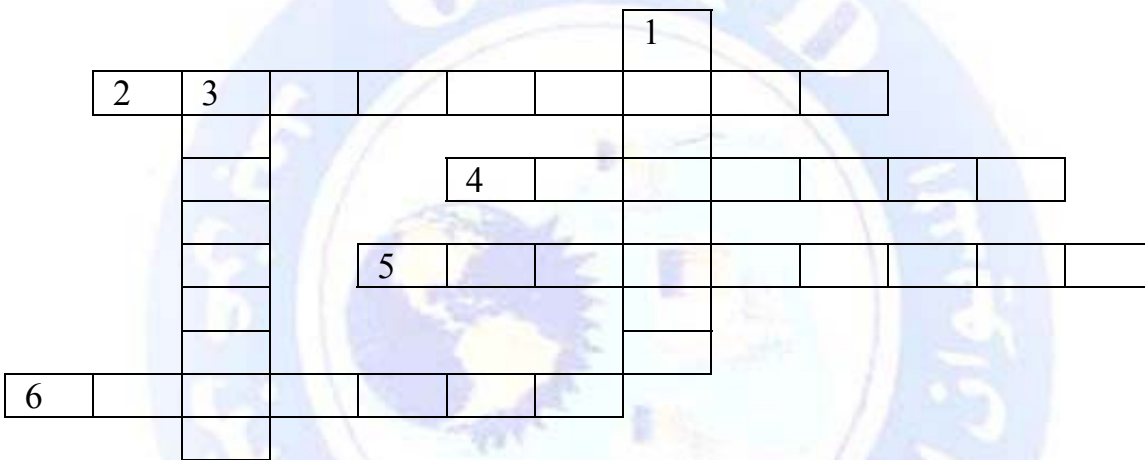

I have a dream
That one day every valley shall be exalted,
Every hill and mountain shall be made low,
The rough places will be made plain,
And the crooked places will be made straight,
And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed
And all flesh shall see it together
This is our hope

(From a speech in Washington, D.C.1963).
