The fox and the hedgehog.

A fox swimming across a rapid river was carried by the force of the current. He stayed in a ravine for a long time. He was sick and unable to move. A group of hungry blood-sucking flies settled upon him. A hedgehog, passing by, saw him. The fox asked him to chase the flies that were tormenting him. The hedgehog accepted to help him. He chased the flies and helped the fox go home.

Few days later, the fox found the hedgehog in a well. He fell in it when he was drinking some water. The fox took a cord and helped him. The hedgehog thanked the fox.

The fox said "A good turn deserves another"
