Malika asked Nabil if he enjoyed himself. Nabil answered that he did. He added that he liked London very much and that there were lots of places to visit.

She then asked him what he had visited. Nabil replied that he had gone to Buckingham Palace two days before and he had seen the Queen's guards, Trafalgar Square and the National Gallery. Malika asked him if he had visited the Tower of London and he replied he had seen the Crown's Jewels and the Beefeaters.

Malika wondered who the Beefeaters were and Nabil explained that the guards at the Tower of London were called the Beefeaters and that they wore red uniforms. Then she wanted to know if he had done some shopping.

Nabil answered that he had gone to some markets, Wembley, Portobello and Oxford Street shops.

She asked him finally what he intended to do the next days. Nabil said that he would visit Madam Tousseaud's the following day. He added that he wanted to go to Hyde Park to see orators at Speakers' Corner on Sunday. Malika remarked that he was very busy.
