

Text:

In the past, people lived differently than nowadays. I used to live in a farmhouse made of mud and bricks with my big family. My father used to raise animals like chickens, cows and sheep and my mother used to do the house chores by hand because we didn't have electric appliances. But now, people live in high buildings and villas and women use washing machines and even robots.

Years ago, we used to dress up in simple ways. Women wore "El Hayek" and men wore "Keshabia" but today they both prefer wearing fashionable clothes.

In the old times, Algerians used to eat fresh and healthy food picked from their farms and gardens. Nowadays, they prefer fast food.

I remember when I was a child; we didn't have phones and video games. We used to go outside and play hopscotch, skipping the rope and marbles with our friends. Oh ! Life was really difficult but I had wonderful moments and I carry today the best memories because I was so happy.
